

4R PLUS COMMUNICATION MATERIALS: FACEBOOK POSTS

Copy	What 4R Plus practices fit your farm’s needs? The process of figuring that out has been simplified. As a supporter of 4R Plus, we understand that each farm has different needs. Watch this video for information on what conservation practices can be used on all landscapes.	Sloping landscapes can be vulnerable to soil erosion. Watch this video to learn what practices can be applied to the existing topography of your field. As a supporter of 4R Plus, we encourage you to find out about the practices that decrease the movement of sediment and nutrients from sloping fields.	Flatter, tile-drained soil in Iowa is some of the most productive in the world. As a supporter of 4R Plus, we encourage you to watch this video to find out about the conservation practices available to maximize nutrients and protect Iowa’s water supply.	Are your crops optimizing available nutrients? As a supporter of 4R Plus, we want to share information about the 4Rs of nutrient stewardship. Watch this video to learn what factors impact the 4Rs.	As a proud supporter of 4R Plus, we want to share information to help Iowa reach its clean water goals. Watch this video for information about the Iowa Nutrient Reduction Strategy and the practices that can be used on farms to help meet the goals for this important initiative to improve our water and soil.
Image	Link generates image	Link generates image	Link generates image	Link generates image	Link generates image
Link*	https://4rplus.org/conservation-practices/	https://4rplus.org/conservation-practices/	https://4rplus.org/conservation-practices/	https://4rplus.org/nutrient-management/	https://4rplus.org/iowa-nutrient-reduction-strategy/